A court authorized this notice. This is NOT a solicitation from a lawyer.

A Proposed Settlement has been reached in a lawsuit against Chesapeake Appalachia, L.L.C. (“Chesapeake”). 1. Why did I receive this notice?

Records show that you (or someone in your family) have received, currently receive, or potentially will receive royalty payments from Chesapeake from current or future wells in Pennsylvania.

The Court sent you this notice to inform you of a proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit styled Demchak Partners Limited Partnership, et al. v. Chesapeake Appalachia, L.L.C., Civil Action No. 3:13-cv-2289, United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. This notice outlines the terms of the proposed Settlement, who is a Settlement Class Member, your right to remain a member of the Settlement Class, how Settlement funds will be paid, how to comment on or object to the Proposed Settlement, and how to exclude yourself from the Settlement Class.

Judge Mannion of the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania is overseeing this class action.

The people who brought the Lawsuit are the “Plaintiffs,” the people who intervened in the Lawsuit are the “Plaintiffs-Intervenors,” and the party being sued is the “Defendant.”

The term “Chesapeake” in this notice means Chesapeake Appalachia, L.L.C.

The term “royalties” in this notice means lessor royalty payments. The term “royalties” does not include overriding royalty interest payments.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs-Intervenors claim that Chesapeake underpays royalties relating to gas produced from wells located in Pennsylvania pursuant to certain provisions of oil and gas leases. The Lawsuit alleges that Chesapeake inappropriately deducted from royalties certain costs that Chesapeake was not permitted to deduct under its leases pursuant to royalty clauses often referred to as “Market Enhancement Clauses” and sold gas at prices that were less than true market value prices. Plaintiffs asked Chesapeake to pay monetary damages and prejudgment interest.

Chesapeake contends that it correctly calculated its royalty payments. Chesapeake denies Plaintiffs’ and Plaintiffs-Intervenors’ claims but has agreed to settle the class action based on the time and expense of continuing the lawsuit and in the interest of furthering its relationship with the lessors.

A more complete description of the Lawsuit is available in the file for the Lawsuit maintained by the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. See Question 17, below. Additionally, should you have questions regarding the Lawsuit, such questions can be submitted in writing to Class Counsel at the addresses provided under Question 13 of this Notice.

3. How do I know if I am part of the Settlement Class?

The Settlement Class is defined as: all individuals and entities, including their predecessors and successors-in-interest, who are lessor parties to a Pennsylvania Lease. A “Pennsylvania Lease” is an oil and gas lease that (a) covers a leasehold located in Pennsylvania, (b) contains a Market Enhancement Clause, and (c) is or has been owned, in whole or in part, by Chesapeake as a lessee, according to the business records maintained by Chesapeake. Examples of Market Enhancement Clauses are set forth in response to Question 4.

- (c) any person or entity who receives royalty in kind pursuant to a Pennsylvania Lease;
- (d) any person (i) whose lease contains a Market Enhancement Clause, (ii) to whom Chesapeake has made no Royalty payments as of the date of the Settlement Agreement, and (iii) whose lease has been sold, transferred, and/or assigned by Chesapeake in its entirety as of the date of the Settlement Agreement;
- (e) any persons or entities who have previously released Chesapeake from liability concerning or encompassing any or all claims that are the subject of the Lawsuit;

In order to assist the Settlement Administrator in the allocation and distribution of monies attributable to the interests of Deceased Settlement Class Members, this Notice is accompanied by an Heirship/Beneficiary Information Form (“Heirship Form”). If a Settlement Class Member believes that he or she is entitled to receive all or some portion of the Settlement funds allocable to a Deceased Settlement Class Member, then the Settlement Class Member is requested, but not required, to mail to the Settlement Administrator a completed Heirship Form.

Some corporations, partnerships, or other entities included in the Class definition may now be dissolved. If you have succeeded to the interest of such a dissolved corporation, partnership, or other entity, you should immediately contact the Settlement Administrator at ChesapeakeSettlement@angeiongroup.com or write the following address:

Attn: Beneficiary Claims

If you are a Settlement Class Member and the Judge approves the Proposed Settlement, you will be bound by all orders and judgments of the Court and by the Court’s final resolution of the Settlement Class claims in the Lawsuit. See Question 13 for your right to comment on or object to the Proposed Settlement.

4. How do I know if my well or lease is included in the Proposed Settlement?

You are included in the proposed Settlement if you fall within the Settlement Class definition described under Question 3, above, and you are not excluded from the Settlement Class for any of the reasons described under Question 3, above.

Examples of a typical “Market Enhancement Clause” are:

It is agreed between the Lessor and Lessee that, notwithstanding any language herein to the contrary, all oil, gas or other proceeds accruing to the Lessor under this lease or by state law shall be without deduction, directly or indirectly, for the cost of producing, gathering, storing, separating, treating, dehydrating, compressing, processing, transporting, and marketing the oil, gas and other products produced hereunder to transform the product into marketable form; however, any such costs which result in enhancing the value of the marketable oil, gas or other products to receive a better price may be deducted from Lessor's share of production so long as they are based on Lessee's actual cost of such enhancements. However, in no such event shall Lessor receive a price that is less than, or more than, the price received by Lessee.

Royalties shall be paid without deductions for the costs of producing, gathering, storing, separating, treating, dehydrating, compressing, transporting, or otherwise making the oil and/or gas produced from the leased premises ready for sale or use. All oil and/or gas royalty shall be delivered free of cost into the tank or pipeline (for oil) and into the pipeline (for gas), with the exception of Lessor's prorated share of any taxes, measured by volume, on the oil and/or gas royalty.

If you have any questions about whether you are part of the Settlement Class, please visit www.ChesapeakePAGasRoyaltySettlement.com, email ChesapeakeSettlement@angeiongroup.com or call (toll-free) 1-855-465-0343. Please do not contact the Court.

5. What does the Proposed Settlement provide?

The proposed Settlement provides monetary relief for Settlement Class Members relating to the deduction of "Post-Production Costs" pursuant to Chesapeake's "Pennsylvania Leases." Under the Settlement, "Post-Production Costs" means costs for gathering, compressing, transporting, or dehydrating gas which are incurred before the interconnect point of a transmission pipeline (such as Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company's interstate transmission pipeline); and "Pennsylvania Leases" means each and every oil and gas lease that (a) covers a leasehold located in Pennsylvania, (b) contains a Market Enhancement Clause; and (c) is or has been owned, in whole or in part, by Chesapeake as a lessee, according to the business records maintained by Chesapeake, subject to the exceptions identified in response to Question 3.

Under the Settlement, Chesapeake will make a payment to the Settlement Class in an amount equal to 55% of all Post-Production Costs reflected as deductions from Gas Royalty Payments made by Chesapeake to Settlement Class Members under the Pennsylvania Leases prior to June 1, 2014, plus 34% of all Post-Production Costs reflected as deductions from Gas Royalty payments made by Chesapeake to Settlement Class Members under the Pennsylvania Leases from June 1, 2014, through the Effective Date of the Settlement. Class Counsel estimate Chesapeake's total payment will be in excess of $17,000,000.00. The payment will be distributed among the Class Members on a pro-rata basis, net of Court-awarded attorneys' fees and expenses and class representative incentive award payments, and in accordance with the Settlement Agreement's Plan of Distribution.

QUESTIONS? CALL 1-855-465-0343

In addition, the Settlement sets forth a Future Royalty Calculation Method under which Settlement Class Members will no longer bear 100% of Post-Production Costs, but will, after the Effective Date, only bear 66% of those costs. Settlement Class Members will continue to bear 100%, on a pro rata basis, of the transportation costs that are incurred after gas has entered the interconnect point of a transmission pipeline.

In exchange for the benefits received by the Class, Chesapeake and its affiliates will be released from any and all claims the Settlement Class Members may have against Chesapeake or its affiliates based on the calculation, payment, and/or reporting of royalties pursuant to a Pennsylvania Lease, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

The Settlement affects only Chesapeake and/or its Affiliates and does not affect how any other entity calculates and/or pays Royalties.

6. What do I need to do to remain a Settlement Class Member?

If you want to remain a Settlement Class Member, you do not need to take any action whatsoever. Class Counsel will represent your interests as a member of the Settlement Class.

7. Can I get out of the Settlement Class?

If you don't want to be in the Settlement Class and you want to keep the right to sue Chesapeake or its affiliates about the same claims on your own, you must take steps to get out of the Settlement Class. This is called excluding yourself from or "opting out of" the Settlement Class. By excluding yourself, you keep the right to file your own lawsuit. If you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you will not receive any benefits from the Proposed Settlement.

8. How do I get out of the Proposed Settlement?

To exclude yourself from ("opt out of") the Settlement Class, you must send a letter personally signed by you that includes all of the following: Your name, address, and telephone number; Your Chesapeake owner number (if you know it); The following Civil Action Number: 3:13-cv-2289; A statement that you want to be excluded from the Settlement Class.

Chesapeake MEC Royalties Settlement Administrator
Attn: Exclusion Requests
1801 Market Street, Suite 660
Philadelphia, PA 19103

You cannot exclude yourself from only part of the Settlement or Settlement Class. You must either remain a Settlement Class Member or exclude yourself from the entire Settlement. Also, please remember that you can't exclude yourself by phone or by sending an email.
